

Regional Alliance for Healthy School

- The RAHS Health Center at Ypsilanti Community High School provides eye exams for RAHS patients in Washtenaw County
- An optometrist from the Kellogg Eye Center sees patients two days per month
- Our health centers arrange to transport students to the RAHS location to access services
- Services are available to youth 21 years old and younger from the community at large
- As with all RAHS services, we accept both insured and uninsured patients with no out-of-pocket charges
- RAHS vision services are intended for patients without insurance, or those who are not yet eligible for a new eye exam or glasses with their insurance
- Those patients who need glasses, or need a replacement pair, are provided glasses at no out-of-pocket cost
- To learn more about vision services, contact your RAHS Health Center
